

A vision for the future

In the Arctic, our people are rich in culture and our land rich in resources. At Voice of the Arctic Iñupiat, our twenty member organizations have joined together to ensure those resources are developed responsibly and our Iñupiat culture and values always protected.

Voice of the Arctic Iñupiat represents the unified voice of our Native people when it comes to issues affecting our region. Together, we speak as one, and bring a strong vision for the future of our communities.

Our voice. Our vision.
